Beg Yuan to Stop Massacres

MASSACRE REPORTS ARE CONFIRMED BY LETTERS

Imperialists Playing for Time

GERMAN MARINES FIRED ON AND CAPTURED BY REBELS

SHANGHAI, Dec. 9.—The climax of the anti-foreign feeling came here today when a body of German marines enroute from Shanghai to Hankow were fired upon by rebels at Kiu Kiang, and taken prisoners. The feeling against Germany has been growing steadily of late, fanned by the belief that the Germans furnished the guns for the attack which resulted in the re-capture of Han Yang, and that they directed the attack. German warships left Shanghai today for the scene of the trouble.

WU CHANG, Dec. 9.—Protesting against Manchurian atrocities, General Li Hung, the rebel commander, has written Premier Yuan Shi Kai at Peking, begging him to force the imperialists to conduct the war humanely and threatening retaliation unless their barbarities cease.

"This is not war—it is savagery," he writes. "The greatest empire in the world's history is being disgraced. We cannot restrain the rebels if the Manchus continue their slaughter of defenseless people. It is your duty to stop the massacres."

NEWS OF MASSACRES AND LOOTING ARE CONFIRMED

PEKING, Dec. 9.—Direct news by messenger yesterday from Shan Pu confirms massacre reports there. The letters to British and American consuls say that 8000 Manchus were slain by Chinese and looting was done. Several mission houses in the province were destroyed, and eight foreigners, some of them children, were killed. Four of the dead were Americans.

V. J. Plymouth of the Christian Missionary Alliance of Tao Chow in a letter dated Nov. 26, says: "We are apparently safe now, but the lawless in the majority. The Kan Su missionaries may have a hard time. Twenty-two of them, including children are Americans."

IMPERIALISTIC TERMS ARE BELIEVED TO BE BLUFF

The terms that the imperial delegates will take to Shanghai or Nanking in an endeavor to settle the questions in dispute between the government and the revolutionists are believed to provide that the emperor shall be retained, though without power, and that a president and cabinet shall be elected by the nation, the president to possess the same authority as the president of a republic.

These terms are considered largely a bluff. Yuan Shi Kai still controls a substantial army, but is unable to pay the soldiers and, desiring to save the nation, must accept the republican demands.

Most of the legations are ready to harbor the emperor in case of his abdication. It is believed the court will select either that of the United States or Japan.

REIMBURSEMENT BILL THRO' SENATE

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 9.—The Cullen bill amending the proportions in the appropriation of $10,500,000 for the reimbursement of counties which suffered by the separation of state and local taxes in 1910, was finally passed by the senate and sent to the assembly today. This fund goes toward the payment of the principal and interest of outstanding indebtedness.

FREE TEXT BOOKS AND BOARD OF EDUCATION BILL OFFERED

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 9.—A constitutional amendment which provides for the complete re-organization of the State Board of Education, combined with the granting of free text books for the common and high schools, was offered today by Senator Larkins. He would have one county and one superintendent of schools, with three other men chosen by the governor, appointed as members of the board. A similar plan was defeated some years ago when submitted to the people.

Job Harriman Defends Self From Charges

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 9.—In answer to veiled charges that Job Harriman, associate counsel for the McNamara, and the defeated candidate for mayor, had expended part of the McNamara fund in his political campaign, Harriman today offered to show the committee of his political opponents his books and statements showing where every dollar of the McNamara defense fund had been expended. The following is his offer:

"If the Good Government party will appoint a committee from its ranks, making Judge Yorke one of the members, I will show them where every dollar of the McNamara defense fund was expended, and give them an itemized statement."

HUTCHINSON PAPER LOCATED HEIRESS

HUTCHINSON, Kas., Dec. 9.—Through publication of her picture in a newspaper here, Louise Swan, the daughter of a New York millionaire, who vanished from her home last July, has been located in Dodge City, Kansas. After the girl's disappearance rewards were offered, and search prosecuted all over America without result. Santa Fe detectives took up the chase. After a month's diligent inquiry their investigations resulted in the first clue being found here. This caused the story of the girl's disappearance and her picture to be printed in a Kansas newspaper. Identification followed. She says a love affair caused her to leave home.

RODGERS TO END SEA TO SEA FLIGHT

LONG BEACH, Dec. 9.—Aviator Cal. F. Rodgers, accompanied by his wife and manager, Clarence Peters, arrived in this city yesterday and, though the former is still on crutches, he stated that the flight from Compton here, which will complete the last lap of his coast-to-coast flight, will be made Sunday as advertised. He expects to land at Long Beach about 3 o'clock.

SANTA ANA BOY TO BEAT KENTUCKY BOY

Marcos Hewitt, aged 12, of 212½ West Fourth street is in a red-hot contest with a Kentucky boy to determine who shall get a pony and cart offered as a prize by the Saturday Evening Post. That the boy is a hustler is proven by the fact that he has outdone all competitors in the United States except one, and he has the rest of this month in which to win the national prize. He has secured thirty-one new subscribers in two days. The boy has taken a number of Saturday Evening Post prizes, all small, and now he hopes to land the big one.

MOVEMENT THAT WILL MEET NEEDS

Open Meeting Resulted in Decided Boost for Important Plan

A HUNDRED AND THREE SAT DOWN

Leaders in the Work Gave Stirring Addresses Here
Last Night

One hundred and nine men sat down to a banquet in the dining rooms of the Congressional church last evening, the occasion being the opening meeting or rally to boost the "Men and Religion Forward Movement" in this city. The matter of forming a local organization to work in harmony with the Los Angeles "committee of one hundred" was taken up by the church federation of Santa Ana last summer, and at the October meeting a central committee was appointed to carry out the work. The plan is to make Santa Ana one of the sixteen auxiliary cities and towns of Southern California which have been asked to join in this movement with Los Angeles as the headquarters. The central committee selected to represent the eight local churches in the federation here are as follows: H. G. Dean, chairman, E. M. Nealley, secretary and treasurer; W. H. Thomas, A. C. Black, F. W. Wiesseman, Harry Lewis, T. W. Neely, L. M. Edwards.

In order to bring the matter before the laymen of the churches the central committee decided to arrange for a banquet and to invite prominent speakers from outside to present the details of the plan. The men secured for this purpose were Miles B. Fisher of San Francisco, Pacific coast secretary of religious instruction of the Congregational church; F. H. Emmett, secretary of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A.; W. E. McVey, vice-president of the German-American Savings Bank of Los Angeles, and Benjamin F. Pierson, a prominent worker in missions in Los Angeles.

All of these men gave stirring addresses along the line of the religious needs of today and the efforts that were being made by various agencies, and especially that of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, to meet these needs. Mr. Fisher spoke of the work done by the boys and men in the Sunday school. There are now enrolled in Sunday schools three million adult men out of a total enrollment of sixteen million. These men are seriously engaged in Bible study and studying the problems of today in the light of the gospel message. But there are also three million men and boys outside of the Sunday schools who should be brought in, and one of the special lines of work being undertaken by the Men and Religion Forward Movement is to get these three millions into the Sunday school. The great need of the day is guidance as to the social complex. The teachings of Jesus must be applied to this complex of today's affairs, and to this end the systematic study of the teachings of the Master is being emphasized.

Mr. McVey made an earnest plea for the spread of the gospel among men. The men must be interested in the great problem of fighting sin and guiding men to the Christ. The one dark spot in the world is sin. He urged that the laymen of the churches all get behind the Men and Religion Forward Movement as one of the greatest evangelistic agencies ever inaugurated. Mr. Pierson spoke along a similar line and urged co-operation with the new movement.

The closing address was given by Mr. Emmett, who is the promotion secretary of the movement for this coast. He explained the business side of the plan and the details of organization. The Men and Religion Forward Movement desires to throw out a lifeline, he declared. A man's task is his life preserver. The man in the church who has not a task sooner or later loses his vitality. The movement does not involve a new organization, but the revitalization of the old. "We have nothing new to present, he said. "We came down here to ask you to endorse the Men and Religion Forward Movement and make Santa Ana one of the sixteen auxiliary cities in Southern California. There is nothing bigger than the local church. It begins and ends in the church. It aims simply to equip the church for work it is already doing."

Following the addresses a general discussion took place which brought out further points of interest. A motion was made and carried that the men present endorse the movement.

CITIES COMPETE FOR USE OF EVIDENCE

LAYLER AND MILLER IN CLASH OVER MATTER

Atty. McCormick of Los Angeles Confers Directly With President Taft

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—Strong color to the reports that a serious friction exists between Federal District Attorney Miller of this city and Special Attorney General Oscar Layler of Los Angeles, over the prosecution of the federal dynamiting probe, was given today when it was learned that Miller had gone to Washington to interview Attorney General Wick.

In Miller's absence, Assistant Federal District Attorney Nichols is conducting the dynamite probe here. Nichols absolutely refuses to discuss the actions of his chief and would not give out any information whatever. As reports have it, Miller has gone to demand of Attorney General Wick that Oscar Layler be prevented from centering the dynamiting investigation in the west.

It is generally reported here that the friction between Miller and Layler has reached the acute stage, each demanding the first use of the evidence here which is expected to implicate labor leaders in the actions of the McNamaras.

MCCORMICK REPORTS DIRECTLY TO TAFT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Federal District Attorney McCormick of Los Angeles today conferred with President Taft at the White House and it is believed he made a direct report on the California dynamite probe.

The conference is considered significant in view of news from Los Angeles that the federal grand jury there is investigating the finding of dynamite placed along the lines of the Harriman system in various places during the recent visit of the president to the west.

KANSAS UNION IS DOWN ON GOMPERS

Will Quit Federation Unless He Resigns—San Quentin Today for McNamaras

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 9.—Clarence Darrow and his associates of the McNamara counsel bade the brothers goodbye in jail at noon today. Darrow was closeted with them a long time and when he left he said:

"I want to set at rest, now, and for all time to come, the assertion that the McNamara brothers will appear before the federal grand jury and give evidence that will disrupt organized labor. They will have nothing to say that will either contradict or confirm the allegations of Orrie McNamara or men like him."

The McNamaras also asked Darrow to look after their aged mother, and this Darrow promised to do.

GOMPERS MUST GO SAYS KANSAS UNION

HUTCHINSON, Kans., Dec. 9.—Hutchinson trades union today adopted resolutions threatening to quit the American Federation of Labor unless Samuel Gompers resigns as its president. The Hutchinson unions are displeased with Gompers' attitude in the McNamara case.

M McNAMARAS PROBABLY TO GO TO SAN QUENTIN TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 9.—It was rumored about the county jail just before noon that the McNamaras are being prepared for a session before the federal grand jury despite their refusal to talk to the inquisitors. In the purported plans of the officials it is said the men will be taken across the "Bridge of Sighs" to the criminal courtroom, where a special session will be held. The McNamaras will most probably be taken to San Quentin at six this afternoon. The Franklin bribery trial will be heard by Judge Borwell on Monday instead of by Justice Young.

CONVINCING ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF POLYTECHNIC

Facts and Figures Produced to Prove Need and Advisability of Passing $200,000 Bonds

No man open to conviction by sound argument could have gone from Spurgeon's hall last night otherwise than convinced that the $200,000 polytechnic high school bonds should carry next Thursday. The proposition was endorsed from various standpoints, business student, faculty, finances, taxation, future of the city, real estate values, appeal to home-seekers, workingman. There seems to be no way the matter could be looked at that did not present a decidedly favorable view. The mass meeting brought out a fair sized crowd of men and women.

J. A. Cranston, superintendent of schools, presided, and delivered the first address. He showed that the schools are at present crowded, and the ratio of increase in attendance means that some radical enlargement of facilities is imperative. He said that the grammar and primary grades total attendance in November last year was 1389; this year, 1544; percentage of increase, 11; if increase in 1912 will be 1714; in 1913, 1903. In the high school the attendance in 1910 was 417; in 1911, 528, a gain of 264 per cent. At that rate the attendance in 1912 will be 667, and in 1913, 840.

Every room in the high school is occupied. In the study room there are 356 seats and there are 528 pupils in the high school. The commercial high school attendance has more than doubled in the last year. There was provision for only 72 girls in domestic science and over thirty had to be turned away for lack of facilities. Next year's increase in the grammar school will prevent manual training and domestic science being given in the high school unless some provision is made.

"Next Thursday is a day for serious thought," said the speaker. "It is the duty of this city to give her boys and girls equal advantages with the boys and girls of other cities."

Business Standpoint

City Trustee W. L. Grubb endorsed the polytechnic high school bonds. "It means more to Santa Ana than anything that has come up since I came here," said he. "The welfare of all will be advanced. What Santa Ana needs is for everybody to pull together. Every dollar paid by a man as a tax for public improvements adds more value to his property than if he expended it on his own property. The question of cost ought not to enter into a wealthy city like ours. We lack a polytechnic high school, but we ought to get one right away."

Students' Appeal

Three high school students earnestly appealed to the voters to give the students the opportunities offered by a polytechnic high school. Miss Faye McDowell forcefully presented the idea that girls in learning the things that pertain to household—which teaching is too often neglected at home—are made happier and better. Dean Bates spoke on "How a Polytechnic is Practical." He told of the work done in Los Angeles, where students drew plans for a new high school building, helped build it and wired it. Furniture making, forge work, auto repairing, cooking, farming and fruit growing—the speaker told of vast things the students could do.

"It would be criminal to curb an ambition like that," said Prof. Cranston. Lloyd Avery clearly explained that the average boy would come from work in polytechnic courses, vague and distant results such as the present high school affords with studies such as Latin and English literature.

Favors the Bonds

J. A. Turner, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants National bank, said that while he did not have the advantages of schools after he was 13 years old, he favored every step to give the children better schools. He felt that a polytechnic high school is a step in the right direction.

Business Matter

Attorney S. M. Davis declared that as a business proposition Santa Ana should pass the bonds. The pioneer of this city had faith in it, faith in the fertility of the country. With its natural advantages, water supply, etc. Santa Ana must add another asset to her business. She must stand by her school board, elected by her people, and measure up to the future growth of the city.

W. V. Whitson, who was on the program, was unable to be present. The next speaker was Postmaster L. L. Shaw.

"Mr. Shaw has put in a great deal of time investigating this matter," said Prof. Cranston, "and his figures are facts and his facts are figures."

Shaw said, in part: "Since the discussion seems to be centered entirely upon the proposed high school bonds I shall eliminate the grammar school bonds from my address, and deal simply with the high school question."

In order to be perfectly fair, I am going to first enumerate the objections to these bonds which have been raised by various citizens for diverse reasons, but with one unani-mity of purpose, viz: to defeat them. 1. The amount is too great. We ought to build a polytechnic high school for $100,000 at the most. 2. The school board has been too precipitate in its action. It does not know what it wants, or what is necessary to meet the requirements of the educational situation. 3. The school board has erred in not selecting a site for the proposed school, so that the people will know exactly what they are voting for. 4. The discipline and results generally of the present high school are unsatisfactory to the taxpayers; consequently no more money should be squandered upon it. 5. The school boards and high school faculty have built up a system of extravagances which should deter the taxpayers from voting further funds to be consumed in such a wasteful manner. 6. The present school board is not competent to judiciously handle such an immense sum of money as would be furnished by these bonds. 7. The polytechnic school is not a school for the "masses."

8. If the present students in our high school from outside districts were excluded there would be no necessity for additional high school facilities. 9. We should not burden our posterity with this additional load of bonds. 10. These bonds, if carried, will raise our taxes to such an extent that homeseekers will be scared to death (some of them may have to be buried at our expense). 11. If the high school bonds are voted it will be impossible to carry bonds for an outfall sewer, which is imperatively demanded. 12. Some retired citizens, of advanced years, whose chief income is from loans on local securities, claim that Santa Ana is already bonded for as much as it should be, and more than most cities in the east.

As to the Amount
I do not believe it is too much. In fact, so far as I am personally concerned, I should regret it exceedingly if the people of Santa Ana should devote any less a sum for so noble and important a purpose. Our great mistakes in the past have been that we were too economical in all such matters. We are in the midst of the most progressive section of the world and yet we have steadily declined, with remarkable lack of foresight, to provide for the certain requirements of the future in all our public enterprises. You have only to observe any public building in our city to verify this statement. Santa Monica has $235,000 invested in its polytechnic school, Hollywood $230,000, Long Beach over $300,000, Riverside $225,000, Pomona $80,000, Pasadena over $500,000, Anaheim $140,000, and Fullerton $160,000. Are we then, as citizens of Santa Ana, the county seat and principal city of the richest county on earth, whose wealth per capita exceeds that of any municipality in all this wonderful golden land of prosperity, to set forth the totally incongruous claim that we can not afford as much education for our children as our next door neighbors? It should be borne in mind that a polytechnic school comprises far more than the high school we have known and become accustomed to. It will embody several buildings, including workshops of various kinds, for both boys and girls, all of which must not only be built, but equipped. No $200,000 is certainly not too much.

The Need of It
For many years the patrons of our high school, and our taxpayers generally, have been demanding a more practical curriculum for its students. It has been reasonably asserted that the present courses do not fit the students for any practical vocation. Moreover, our high school quarters are entirely inadequate at the present time, there being an enrollment of 530 students, with a comfortable seating capacity for 356. The board personally investigated practically every polytechnic school in Southern California and knew absolutely of the advantages it was endeavoring to secure for the boys and girls of Santa Ana. We have been too slow—not too hasty in this matter.

No Site Selected
In my judgment the school board has acted wisely in deferring the selection of a site until after the voters have decided upon the bonds. If the matter of location were injected into this discussion it would simply give those opposed to the bonds further grounds for objection, as well as detracting generally from the real point at issue. On general principles, it seems to me, it may reasonably be assumed that no school board would select an unsuitable site for so magnificent an enterprise.

As to Discipline
In the high school, we are all willing to admit, I think, that it is not, and has not been, all that we desired. Far from it, in fact. That very condition, however, is an argument in favor of the polytechnic, rather than

TWO HUNDRED MINERS MAY BE DEAD

Explosion In Federal Mine at Bryceville, Ky., Is Latest of Mine Horrors

INTERIOR IS BELIEVED TO BE A MASS OF FLAMES

Victims Entombed Two Miles
From Entrance to Mine by Tons of Debris

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 9.—

Many miners are reported to be entombed in a mine at Bryceville, Tenn., according to a report received by the local branch of the Federal Mines Bureau here today. The report says that 200 miners are entombed.

The report says that the Knoxville Iron Co. is the owner of the mine which has been operating near Frasersville, Tenn., for twenty years. In 1902, seven hundred miners were killed there in an explosion. Aid has been dispatched to the scene of the alleged disaster from Pittsburgh, Birmingham, Ala., and Warren, Ky. A dust explosion is believed to have been the cause of the explosion.

The mine is located at Bryceville, Tenn., and all the men are believed to have perished, numbering at least 150. The victims are imprisoned behind thousands of tons of earth and rock, two miles from the entrance to the mine. The blast came at 7:30 this morning just after the day shift went to work. Volumes of smoke at noon were still issuing from the mine entrance and there is believed to be a mass of flames in the inner workings.

Hundreds of women and children are gathered at the mouth of the pit at Bryceville, and many of them have tried to hurl themselves into the mine, despairing of ever seeing their loved ones who are shut beneath. The only hope for the entombed miners is that portions of the wall and roof of the mine have collapsed, shutting off the deadly gasses which otherwise would kill every man entombed.

The first rescuers attempting to enter the pit were driven back by smoke and fire which raged in the lower workings. It will be hours before the flames can be subdued, and until they are, nothing can be done towards rescue. President Stephenson of the company owning the mine stated that he did not believe the dead would exceed two hundred.

TARIFF BOARD IS DOOMED BY HOUSE

Will Starve Out Board by Withholding Means for Its Existence

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The leaders of the majority in the house have made up their minds to kill President Taft's pet tariff board by the simple method of refusing it the money required for its existence.

Since the board's creation in 1910 it has cost $525,000 and made two reports, one on Canadian reciprocity, the other on wood pulp and print paper. Its failure to produce results is one reason for the decision to abolish it; another is that the board has not been placing all its cards across the board. An expert sent by it to investigate into the cost of carpet and other woollen manufactures in Massachusetts, it is claimed, was directed by the board to double all such costs before making his report.

If such a report were accepted its effect would be to raise tariff rates on the products of Massachusetts mills beyond a just figure.

BEET SUGAR CULTURISTS CALLED TO WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Subpoenas have been issued by the house sugar trust committee for a number of farmers engaged in beet sugar culture to refute the testimony of Colorado farmers that the beet sugar refiners do not deal fairly with them. The new witnesses will prolong the investigation.

BAKER THINKS THE GIFT IS WORTHLESS

Local Real Estate Man Satisfied He Was Stung for the Full Amount

G. C. Baker, a local real estate agent, does not believe in looking a gift horse in the mouth, but nevertheless he is certain he was stung when he was given a lot in Wonderland Park, Ventura county. He says there are sixty others in Santa Ana who are likewise stung. The lots were given away at a local theater. Baker was one of the lucky winners. He found that to get a transcript and deed it would cost $6.50 with $1 for recording. Baker paid out $3 before he thought it well to write to a cousin in Ventura county. The reason he thinks he was stung is that his cousin in reply said: "Wonderland Park is seventeen miles from Ventura back in the mountains past all settlements of any kind. There is 150 acres in the tract and only 10 level. It's away from railroad or stage line and one can only get there by hiring Ventura live-rymen to take him up. It will never increase in value." The letter states it is planned to get campers to go to the place and hunt and contribute to a club-house.

PERMANENT CANCER CURE SEEMS SURE

Dr. Keating Hart Demonstrated Fulguration System He Has Discovered

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—A permanent cure for cancer—the fulguration treatment—was theoretically demonstrated to the satisfaction of a body of prominent medical men at the New York Skin and Cancer Hospital yesterday afternoon by Dr. Keating Hart, of France, who had been invited to come to this country and teach the use of his discovery to American surgeons. The general theory of the treatment is that after a malignant tumor has been removed, the healthy cells that surround it are made by extremely high static electricity, forever incapable of again harboring cancerous germs.

Dr. Hart performed six operations for cancer yesterday afternoon. As each tumor was removed he applied his treatment. Sparks of great fineness, but extreme brilliancy, shot into the cavity made by the surgeon's knife. Dr. Hart explained that the current has no effect whatever on the diseased cells themselves and the most minute part of the tumor must be removed.

The fulguration treatment was born with the discovery that lightning striking in sand would completely change the particles adjacent to the tubes made by the bolt. These particles became known as fulgurites.

Dr. Hart declared that time will prove that the person who has had the treatment will be as free from cancer as the person who has never had it.

Aid to Perfect Health

That the body may be in a perfectly healthy, normal condition, it is necessary that the various organs perform their natural functions in the regular manner.

This is particularly true of the Liver, the principal work of which is the separation of various poisonous materials from the blood. Unless these are withdrawn and disposed of, they are reabsorbed into the system, resulting in a gradual poisoning of the whole system.

Rehall Liver Salts has proven remarkably efficacious in aiding the Liver to properly perform its functions, and for this reason we most highly recommend the use of this preparation to you.

We have it in two sizes, 25c and 50c, Dean's Drug Store. The Rehall Drug Store.

WAS DRAGGED FROM HER SEAT BY LINES

Orange News: Edith Kelly was rather painfully but not seriously hurt Tuesday evening at McPherson. The Kelly family was driving to Orange to attend the performance of "The Wedding Breakfast." Near the Fuller home the horses were frightened and became unmanageable. Their actions broke the shafts and Miss Edith, who was driving, was pulled out of the buggy and dragged a short distance. She received a few bruises as the extent of her injuries.

FATHER IS SEEKING WORD OF HIS SON

"Portland, Me., Dec. 4, 1911. "Editor Register:—I am looking for a son of mine, Edwin M. Irwin, 16 years old, slight build, dark complexion, dark eyes. I just found out the facts in the case about two months ago and have been hunting all over the west for him.

"Should the boy be in want of any thing I want him well taken care of and all bills will be paid promptly.

VESTAL IS ON RETIRED LIST

He Had Nearly Eighteen Years Continuous Service in the Guards

Major L. L. Vestal is now on the retire list of the National Guards of California. He has been placed on the retired list at his request, after seventeen years and eight months continuous service in the California guards, excepting the period during the Spanish-American war when he was a member of the California Volunteers as a second lieutenant.

Major Vestal entered as private in Santa Ana. He occupied all the various offices up to that of Major, by which office he was in command as major of Companies L of Santa Ana, H of Long Beach, and I of Pasadena. As soon as orders are out an election will be held for a major to succeed Vestal.

"Doc" Roberts and the Typewriter in the Public Schools

This is a dream of years ago, but today it is realized, by some, it is fully appreciated by many, it seldom is given a thought. Tonight and Sunday, at the Bell, the visitor will be shown the shop of Mr. Sholes, the inventor of the typewriter, where he is hard at work upon his model, then how he became discouraged, how friends deserted him, while others came to his aid. How the capitalist undertakes the manufacture of his machine, the forty years later through the large factory and watch the making of all of the various parts and assembling of the machines, closing with the vision of inventor and capitalist now realized and the typewriter in the public schools. It is a wonderful film. Other new picture subjects will be shown, and the Haugenbocks, in "Fun in a Barnyard," are on the bill at the Bell Theatre for the rest of the week. Balcony seats to old and young alike are 5c. Main floor 10c and 15c.

THE REGISTER'S RECORD OF BUILDING PROGRESS

REALTY MARKET Even Little Ventura Has CONTINUES ACTIVE A Fine Polytechnic High

The County Recorder's Office Shows November to be Record Month

BOTH RANCHES AND LOTS ARE SELLING

Sprague and Gardner Buy Acreage Between Olive and Villa Park

One cannot watch the deeds recorded day after day without realizing that there is a most remarkable awakening in real estate matters in this county. These deeds tell the real story. County Recorder Peters' books show that November was the biggest month in the history of his office. That simply means, as the Register has often stated of late, that there is great activity in real estate in this county.

That activity is found in all lines. There is a big demand for orchard property, and no small number of sales are made weekly. Here in Santa Ana a number of residences have been purchased, and the unusual demand for vacant lots on which to build new houses keeps up.

Recent sales of lots are to Fred W. Fuller, the northwest corner of Fourteenth and Bush streets; to T. L. Baker, a lot on South Main street; to R. C. McMillan, the contractor, three lots on South Main street.

J. T. Raitt has purchased a five acre walnut orchard in the northwest part of the city from L. L. Shaw.

E. B. Sprague of the Orange County Title Company has bought a ranch in the foot hills belt along the edge of the foothills between Olive and Villa Park. In that same vicinity recently H. H. Gardner of Santa Ana bought a ranch from Mr. Brown, to be set to lemons.

As announced in the Register yesterday, W. A. Zimmerman yesterday traded for the northeast corner of West Fourth and Broadway. J. W. Bergman received property at Huntington Beach and seventeen acres at Berrydale.

It is reported that L. J. Carden will build on the corner of French and Wellington. Mrs. Gardner's fine $5000 home at the corner of French and Washington is nearing completion.

One of the important realty deals of the last week was the purchase of the southwest corner of Fifth and Sycamore streets by L. D. Mercereau from A. H. Nickell. This is fine business property.

WILL SUBDIVIDE WALNUT ORCHARD AND OPEN AND GRAVEL AND OIL STREETS

It has been some time now since Santa Ana has had a new subdivision, but it will not be long before it has another. In fact, it is expected that next Monday night a petition will be before the city trustees for the acceptance of a map for a subdivision of five and a half acres on Flower street between Hickey and Orchard streets, in the northwestern part of the city.

The property at present is in walnut orchard. It was bought less than two weeks ago by William Wakeham, who with Stockford Wheaton and Ashby Turner will subdivide it and put it on the market. Wakeham has also bought a house and lot belonging to Mrs. Davis adjoining the tract, that Orchard street might be cut through from its west end.

The tract is to have all its streets improved with gravel and oil, and cement sidewalks and curbs will be put in on all streets. As soon as the map is accepted and deeds passed, to those who have agreed to buy in the subdivision, three or four houses will be built immediately. In fact, Architect Eley is employed now, in drawing plans for two of the houses.

ELECTION OF LEADERS HELD

Walter Amstutz Chosen Captain of Uniform Rank at Anaheim

ANAHEIM, Dec. 9.—At the annual election of officers of Company Twenty-Six, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Walter Amstutz, captain; George Eastland, first lieutenant; Conrad Mauerhan, second lieutenant; B. T. Beale, recorder; D. Gervias, treasurer, Amstutz and Beale were re-elected. Eastland was moved up from second lieutenant, Mauerhan and Gervias were newly elected officers. There is at present 150 members in the company.

At the close of the business meeting the banquet which the company enjoys yearly was given, Gen. J. O. Royer acting as toastmaster. Short speeches were made by County Sheriff C. E. Ruddock of Santa Ana, Capt. Ralph of Orange, A. L. Stewart, Prof. Delbert Brunton, R. C. Keene, J. P. Town of Fullerton, W. A. Goodwin, E. E. Angell, O. Lagman, George W. Hamler of Anaheim.

C. A. Griggs of this city has purchased the San Luis Hot Sulphur Springs property situated seven miles from San Luis Obispo and three miles from Port Luis. The property, which was formerly owned by Smith Bros. of Minneapolis, and to them Griggs paid $50,000 cash for the property. The holding consists of 250 acres of land improved with buildings which are said to have cost $50,000. Both sulphur and soda springs are on the holding and it is a popular resort for both health and pleasure seekers. The new owner is planning some extensive improvements in addition to those already on the property, which will be kept open the year round.

TO WALNUT GROWERS OF SANTA ANA AND VICINITY

—The Santa Ana Valley Walnut Growers' Association is now ready to receive new members. The season just about to close has shown the necessity and advantage of having an association.

If every grower of Walnuts will join the association we will be in a still better situation to do good than we are now. Growers who wish to join can do so by coming to the packing-house of the association and signing the by-laws.

INDIGESTION WILL VANISH

Makes Your Out-of-Order Stomach Feel Fine in Five Minutes

—Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangles and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

AMOUNTS NAMED IN PERMITS ARE LESS THAN COST

Inspector Says As a Rule Sum Paid Out is Quarter or a Third More

Business has been quite good of late at the office of Building Inspector Roper, and most of the permits that have gone out have been for new houses that will cost from $1500 to $2500 apiece.

"As a rule," said the building inspector, "buildings cost a quarter or a third more than the amount named in the permits. Permits are issued made out on estimates and are often at the time the building is commenced—or should be applied for at that time. A large proportion of the amounts named in the permits do not cover the costs."

FIRE THOSE STOCK-SELLING SWINDLERS

The Register is heartily sick and tired of fake stock-selling schemes, and does not hesitate to pronounce nine out of ten of the stocks offered for sale in this state unworthy the consideration of investors. Either they are dishonest or they are without sound business basis.

Kansas has a very effective law for the protection of its citizens against the wiles of wild-cat stock salesmen, which it would be well for California to copy. It makes all corporations offering stock for sale amenable to the state bank commissioner. Before stock can be sold the corporation must obtain the bank commissioner's approval. This law has saved millions of dollars annually to farmers and other investors in Kansas.

The stock swindlers prey especially upon widows who get a little insurance money or a small inheritance, and upon farmers who sell out and retire, these classes of people being unfamiliar with business affairs and over anxious for big interest paying investments.

Especially to be condemned are those business men, sometimes bankers, who give a sort of tacit endorsement of the schemes by subscribing for a few shares, sometimes paid for and sometimes not, or by writing a letter saying of the promoter, "I have had business dealings with him and our relations have always been satisfactory." Of course this is not saying, "He is all right, I'll vouch for him," but that is the interpretation of the unsophisticated investor.

These stock swindlers should be run out of the state.

against it. We all know, and your mothers especially, that the best way to control a boy is to interest him. He is not inordinately interested in studying Latin, Greek, botany, trigonometry, or even English. He wants to demolish some kind of resistance. Now to my way of thinking these boys will be interested in the practical courses of the polytechnic where they can hammer iron and saw wood and make beautiful and useful finished product out of the homely raw material. Give these students something practical to perform and the question of discipline will solve itself.

Extravagance Overrated
The story of extravagance in our schools seems to become more popular as new features are introduced, but really the best way to determine results is always by comparison.

THE COST OF EDUCATING EACH STUDENT PER YEAR IN THE DIFFERENT HIGH SCHOOLS OF ORANGE COUNTY IS AS FOLLOWS: ANAHEIM, $12.01; FULLERTON, $13.56; HUNTINGTON BEACH, $126.85; ORANGE, $65.41; SANTA ANA, $48.88.

Surely this seems a most remarkable showing in favor of economy for Santa Ana high school. The sweeping charges of extravagance are not maintained by these figures, which are reliable.

Question of Competency
The charge that our board of education is not qualified to judiciously handle this bond issue seems to me entirely uncalled for. In the first place, the three gentlemen and two ladies composing it are all well known to our people and were placed in their present position by our votes out of a choice of eight, with a thorough understanding of what their duties should be, and for a term of four years. I want to call your attention to the further fact that this board has inaugurated an entirely new procedure, so far as this city is concerned in appointing an advisory committee of citizens to assist in all the important work of selecting the site as well as building and equipping the school. This committee is composed of Messrs. W. A. Zimmerman, John N. Anderson, H. T. Ruth, O. M. Robbins and W. B. Tedford. For myself I believe the board is entirely fitted for this work.

The presence of two able and experienced women upon it will be of great value in the equipment and general arrangement of the domestic science department for girls, where our daughters will be taught cooking, sewing and general housework.

A School for the People

We are told by a few—a very few I believe—that the polytechnic is not a school for the "masses," that it is a school for the "rich." And yet of the 530 students now enrolled in our high school and of the 200 more who would be enrolled in a polytechnic, certainly less than ten per cent are children of even moderately rich parents.

The polytechnic is distinctively a people's school. It is the poor boy's greatest opportunity. The poor girl's portal to a happy, honest and useful life, the rich girl's revelation of the true mission of existence. Here there is no class distinction. If we build this institution, we have provided a thoroughly practical, common-sense avenue of education.

Our Duty to Outside Students

I am sure those of our citizens who have suggested excluding students from outside districts have not given the subject proper consideration; and I am very happy to state that such a course could not be pursued even if desired, which it is not. Any graduate of a grammar school, in any district where no high school is operated, may designate the high school of his choice in any other district and the Old Harry and Tom Walker cannot prevent him from attending it—and that is a mighty good, square-toed American law to my way of thinking. Moreover, his own district must pay his tuition at this chosen high school.

As previously stated, our high school now has an enrollment of 530, with a normal capacity for 356. Of these 530 students, 130 are from districts outside of Santa Ana, whose home districts pay us for their education and thus assist in supporting our school. Do our business men want these 130 students diverted to Orange or Anaheim? Do our taxpayers want to lose this very considerable revenue? With a thoroughly up-to-date polytechnic high school this outside enrollment would probably reach 300, which at $50 per student would mean $15,000 a year; at $60, $18,000.

Consider Our Posterity

"We should not burden our posterity with this additional load of bonds," say a few more. What sort of a burden are we imposing upon our children, who all too soon will be through with whatever facilities we provide for them, if we fail to give them the same opportunities to equip themselves for independence which are gladly furnished by other communities?

Those Awful Taxes

Here we have the real issue in this campaign. I am not criticizing anybody who objects to the bonds on account of taxes, because it is just as natural for people to kick on taxes as it is for them to breathe. If they are high they ought to be lower and if they are low they ought to be lower. Figures cut no ice; conditions make no difference; emergencies have no bearing on the case.

I have never yet seen a progressive, enterprising home-seeker who was afraid of taxes in a town which showed a healthy growth. I am free to say that I hope my taxes will continue to increase on a fair valuation of my property—not because I enjoy paying taxes, but because I realize that my taxes are only my just contribution towards bringing about results that have caused this enhancement in value.

Happily our board of education has already adopted the maximum rate it will ask for next year, namely, $1.20 on the $100, provided these school bonds carry. This is 22 cents higher than last year, which would mean $2.20 more on each $1000 valuation.

Our tax rate even with this addition, will be considerably lower than many of the most progressive cities of Southern California. Now the only way to reduce taxes in a growing town is to make it grow so fast that the increased new wealth and improvements will be their very magnitude force down the taxpayers' tribute. Take Los Angeles, for instance, where taxes are low, and yet where they vote bonds, and immense bonds at that, two or three times a year just for pastime.

Coming back to the matter of home-seekers, a Long Beach real estate dealer told me recently that the first thing he always shows a prospective investor is their polytechnic high school. He considers it, in that bustling city of many attractions, the most effective thing they have, and in most instances, he stated, if the man located at all this school had more influence in his decision than any other feature of the city, particularly if the home-seeker had children to educate. I have also heard that this was the case at Hollywood. Wide-awake, enterprising and up-to-date citizens appreciate just such institutions as this polytechnic high school, and they are liable, in most instances, to pass by the city which has not enterprise enough to provide them.

As you all know, our greatest growth has occurred during the last six or seven years. In 1905 our city tax rate, exclusive of the school tax, was $1.65 on the $100, the highest in its history. In 1911 it is $1.20. Now since 1905 the city has voted $165,000 in bonds for various purposes, and yet our tax rate is now 45 cents lower than it was six years ago.

With the small increase in taxes resulting from this bond issue, the man with an average amount of property would have little extra to pay, while the heavy property owner, who in most cases has become rich through the growth of the city, can well afford to assume his share of the cost of any improvement. I know that the increase in the value of this property will make the small percentage of their additional taxation a good investment, and they should not be allowed to retard the growth of the city simply because they have all the money they care for and don't happen to have a direct personal interest in this particular issue.

Sewer Bonds Question

This has been brought into this discussion by a considerable number of our people, who fear that we cannot carry both propositions, and consequently that if the polytechnic bonds carry the sewer bonds will be defeated. In this position, strange as it may seem to them, I believe they are laboring under entirely false conclusions.

The people who will vote for the polytechnic bonds are the progressive people of this city; they are not the ones who will oppose the sewer bonds under anything like fair conditions, but they are vitally interested in securing this practical school for our children, which they have desired for years, and if the polytechnic bonds are defeated its advocates

GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothurn, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women. Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution. Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

will be sorely disappointed. On the other hand, many of those who are opposing the polytechnic bonds will oppose the sewer bonds or any other bond issue. The fact that they are against the school issue cannot, in any manner of reasoning, be construed as an indication that these opponents as a class, are in favor of any other large expenditure.

This is no time to split issues or balk in the ranks of progress. In fact, the slogan for both campaigns and for any others of a similar nature which may follow, should be "BOOST," don't "HALK!"

The Retired Investor

Who opposes these bonds is exercising a lack of good business judgment it seems to me. All that men of this class need to consider is whether a polytechnic school is an advantage. If so, it will assist in creating a better money market and maintaining the value of securities.

Tide after tide has rolled up to the doors of Santa Ana, freighted with opportunity and beckoning to our people to accept the advantages offered, only to roll back neglected to be seized upon by some more enterprising community. And yet all else has not failed. Far from it. We have grown and prospered slowly but with increasing momentum the past few years. Once again the tide of opportunity is setting strong in our direction. It is gathering strength hourly and has already reached the highwater mark of our history. Our city is better known than ever before. The wonderful advantages of our peerless county are being heralded by new lips, and in new localities every day. More strangers are with us in our gates than we have ever known before. The real estate market in both city and country is strong and active. Surely these are all conditions we have longed for and desired. Greater things are apparently in store for us in the immediate future. And yet, my friends, do we not all realize that the full benefits from this condition, right at this time, depend upon our own efforts and our own energy? Can you not see that a backward step now—that any act on our part which may be construed as a lack of faith in our own town, may very seriously effect this splendid era of prosperity which is just beginning? The tender bud is the most sensitive to a chilling frost, and this new condition of ours is but the bud of opportunities within our grasp if properly considered and manipulated. Let us not blight it with the chilling blast of false economy, nor allow it to wither and disappear from dilatory unconcern. Rather let us nurture it with all our skill, with never-flagging attention and with intelligent methods until it blossoms forth into the beautiful full-blown flower of prosperity which nature intended.

We have never attempted a really big thing in Santa Ana before. Let us do one thing now that is really worth while and shake off this reputation which we have acquired of being a slow town. Such an opportunity we have never had presented to us before, and it may be years—and costly years—before it is presented again if we brutally discard it at this time. Let every citizen, man or woman, who opposes these bonds, ponder well before the final ballot is cast. They are entitled to your most thoughtful and patriotic consideration.

Needs to Vote Them

J. P. Baumgartner, editor of the Register, stated that he thought the crux of the objection is taxes.

"There is not one in a hundred but who thinks the polytechnic high school is a good thing," said he, "but he is afraid of taxes. My experience in other cities is that bond issues and public improvements pay. In Pasadena they had bond issues frequently. My home there cost $4600, and I sold it for $11,000. The Y. M. C. A. bought a corner for $30,000 and sold it for $90,000. That is what improvements did there. What Santa Ana needs is to wake up and do something, and the opportunity is here."

Prof. Cranston announced that Dr. Shearer of the Pasadena polytechnic institute will speak at another mass meeting Wednesday night.

LEAGUERS SOCIAL

South Methodist Young People Had Jolly Time at Home of Mrs. M. E. Hill

The Senior League of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held a pleasant social at the home of Mrs. M. E. Hill, 463 Hickey street, last evening, with Mrs. Hill and Miss Verna Brooks as hostesses.

The rooms were prettily decorated with roses and caryanthemums and presented an attractive appearance. An excellent program included readings by Miss Rose Sharps, Miss Cora Siefert, Roy Elliott and J. S. McDonald; a story by Frank Greenleaf and a vocal solo by Ben Riesland.

After which the Leaguers chose sides and debated the question, "Resolved that a city boy in the country is greener than a country boy in the city."

The judges could not decide in favor of either side, saying "that they were so green themselves that they could not decide which was the greenest in the case debated."

Many interesting games followed this. Then refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. W. O'Bar and Miss Morse, of cake, fruit, and dates.

Over fifty were present and so enjoyable was the event that the Leaguers did not disband till a very late hour.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES

Charming Functions Were Presided Over by Young Matron of Orange

Mrs. George G. Cole of Orange this week gave two pretty Christmas parties, the events taking place Thursday and Friday afternoons.

For each function, Christmas colors of green and red were used in the beautiful house decorations, holly appearing profusely in artistic baskets and wreaths. The same joyous color scheme was carried out as far as practicable in the dainty refreshments served each afternoon. Mrs. Cole was aided in serving and scoring by four charming young ladies of Orange.

On Thursday afternoon the diversion consisted of progressive conversation, the guests being debarked from using the pronoun "I." Each time the first person pronoun was used, a point was forfeited to the opponent. Mrs. J. W. Bishop succeeded in evading the troublesome little word more often than any one else, and for her successful avoidance was awarded a handsome cut glass dish. Whist was played Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. G. Richards of Orange winning high score and first prize. Miss Pauline Parsons won second prize, both trophies being pretty pieces of Venetian glass.

Eighty ladies were entertained by Mrs. Cole at the two parties; both of which were among the prettiest and most successful of the social season.

Ebbl Music Section

Ebbl Music Section will meet with Mrs. Hull on North Main street Monday afternoon. An interesting program is promised and members are urged to be present.

Entertained Whist Club

Mrs. Rafferty and Miss Dresser on Thursday charmingly entertained the Duplicate Whist Club at the home of Miss Dresser.

Young People's Social

The Christian Endeavor of the United Presbyterian church held a business meeting and social last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd, 816 Parton street. The officers were elected for next year as follows: President, Robert McGee; vice president, Olive Hutchinson; secretary, Edwina Collins; treasurer, Joe Thompson.

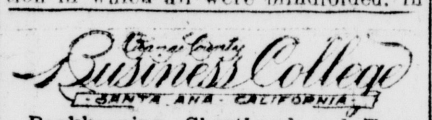

After the business had been attended to, the young people enjoyed themselves till a late hour, when light refreshments of cake and cocoa were served.

Delightful Evening

The young ladies of the R. C. R. S. class of the First Presbyterian Sunday school are not likely to soon forget the happy hours spent last night at the handsome North Main street home of their teacher, W. A. Zimmerman. Mrs. Zimmerman very charmingly did the honors of the evening, assisted by Miss Mary Shrewsbury, and her nieces, Miss Marie Zimmerman and Miss Josephine McCrory, the latter of whom is spending the winter at the Zimmerman home.

The parlors were lavishly decorated with the Christmas colors, red roses and smilax being employed. The dining room, where delicious refreshments conforming to the color scheme as nearly as possible, were served, was a dream in a Japanese effect, red Japanese lanterns, velvet geraniums and trailing smilax being cleverly combined in the decorative scheme. A Japanese tea table occupied the center of the room from which tea was served. The guests cozily ensconced themselves in bright hued cushions scattered about the rooms in luxurious profusion. Thus comfortably disposed the merry girls slipped tea and ate delicious cherry-flecked ice cream that might have hailed from the Flowery Kingdom itself, but which really came from the Dragon.

Several games of contest were played, Miss Anna Cooley winning first prize and Miss Ruth Harding second prize in a doll cutting competition in which all were blindfolded. In

Surprise Shower

Miss Elizabeth McCarty who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Will Hatch, was much surprised last evening when she and her fiancé were invited to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Deas on South Ritchey street to spend the evening and found a jolly crowd of their friends there waiting for them to arrive. The evening was spent in conversation, music and games.

Miss Elizabeth had to follow a string through different parts of the house and at last came upon a bountiful supply of kitchen utensils.

Mrs. Deas' sister, Miss Dora Milligan, and Miss Reta McGaffey assisted Mrs. Deas in entertaining and serving refreshments.

Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir

That the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir which will appear at the opera house on Tuesday evening, Dec. 19th, brings the goods with it when it tours the country, and that it captivates the heart of the people, needs no other certificate than the fact that the choir on its third tour is receiving a warmer reception than it ever received on its previous tours. The daughters of Wales have found out that Americans and Canadians are truly a musical people, and, as Madame Hughes-Thomas puts it, the proof of a really musical nature is the shunning of musical trash, however cheap it may be, and the patronizing of musical art for art's sake, even though the prize be prohibitive. Musical America has gone crazy—to use a vulgar term—over the singing of the lasses from Wales, not because of any high price they had to pay to hear them, but because the singing of the choir reached the ideal of a genuinely musical people. Hence the third visit of the choir and the invariable warm reception it has met with so far at every appearance on its present itinerary over our great continent. One of the effects of the previous tours is that the choir, having become more accustomed to the American people, sings on this occasion better, if possible, than it ever did before.

The concert justified all the glowing accounts written in the public press wherever the choir has made its appearance in this country. It is a pleasure to listen to such a body of female voices, where almost every member, it seems, need not feel ashamed to step out of the choir and before the audience, because they are Welsh, and as a nation of singers nature has endowed them with an inherent facility of musical comprehension and with beautiful and natural voices. —Cleveland (Ohio) Leader.

The choir will visit this city under the auspices of the Orange County Conservatory of Music.

Carl J. Klatt has sold his 20-acre ranch on the Newport road to Mr. W. E. Watson of Los Angeles. The ranch is set to lemons and Valencia oranges.

W. S. Suddaby has purchased two and one-half acres adjoining his seven and a half acres on the Newport road from John Souders, Jr., thus making him ten acres in all. The land is set to young Valencia trees.

The Tustin Manufacturing Company is building an addition to its shop and installing some new machinery.

CHURCH BAZAAR

Supper Given by Aid Society of Presbyterian Church

The annual bazaar and supper held by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church last Wednesday afternoon and evening was a very pleasant and successful affair, and a goodly number of people attended.

There was a large display of beautiful and useful articles for sale, showing that the ladies had been very industrious for some time past. The artistic contributions of Mrs. Phil Ebel filled one corner of the room, and it took but a glance to perceive that Mrs. Ebel is very clever with her brush.

The supper consisted of a wide variety of home-cooked foods served in cafeteria style which were very tempting.

Sue H. Smith, E. G. Sadie E. Hughes; manager, Bessie E. McDonald; M. of R. & S. Florence E. McCharles; M. of F. Lena M. Wollenberg; protector, Marie L. Poh; guard, Anna L. Bowman.

After the business session refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Coryopsis Club

Mrs. Thomas Mann and her daughter, Mrs. Peacock, entertained the members of the Coryopsis Club at the former's home on San Juan street last Tuesday afternoon.

Those present besides the hostess were Mesdames Mount, McCarrell, P. W. Swartz, Katie Swartz, Wm. Colar, J. D. Howes, Hart, C. C. Sambert, and Van House; Misses Mae Colar and Ethel Alderman.

The guests worked busily on their fancy work while the pleasant hours sped away. The serving of tempting refreshments completed an enjoyable afternoon.

Embroidery Club to Meet

The Richardson Art Embroidery Club will meet with Mrs. D. Hardcastle on Laguna avenue next Thursday afternoon.

W. C. T. U. to Meet

The next meeting of the Tustin W. C. T. U. will be at Mrs. A. L. Shatto's home on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 14. The afternoon will be devoted to a Union Signal review.

Sunday School Class Entertains
Boy's class No. 5 of the Advent Christian Sunday school entertained the young ladies' class this afternoon at Mrs. Trowbridge's home. Games and conversation helped the time to pass very pleasantly. The serving of dainty refreshments brought the enjoyable afternoon to a close.

Y Meeting

A very interesting Y meeting was held at the home of Henry Ebel Friday evening. About thirty-five were present.

A short report of Miss Cummings, the state "Y" secretary's lecture was read.

It was decided to have a temperance play after the first of the year. Six new members joined the Y. They were Clara Thorman, Leona Bainbridge, Barrett Deaver, Emma Awe, Ella Awe and Ruth Morgan. Three short clippings on cigarette smoking were read. Music was furnished by Alice and Inez Phinney and Mabel Logan and Claude Martin.

Delicious refreshments of cocoa, doughnuts and cakes were served, after which the meeting adjourned. The next meeting will be held Jan. 12th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

TUSTIN CHURCH NOTICES

Presbyterian Church

Morning sermon topic, "Effectual Prayer;" evening topic, "Perilous Delusion."

Advent Christian Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m., C. E. Hatch, superintendent. Morning worship, 11, sermon by the pastor, Will S. Trowbridge, "Redemption." Loyalty workers at 6:30, "Vigilance." Expository address at 7:30, "After Death."

Arrangements are being made at the Advent Christian church to have the evening talks illustrated by stereopticon views for a time. Mr. Trowbridge has his stereopticon fitted with an electric light, which throws distinct images about 1000 times larger than the original, and has a large assortment of slides on religious topics, most of them beautifully colored. Those who have had experience agree that the illustrations give an added force of realism to the address and to the general tone of the meeting. Seats will always be free, and a cordial welcome awaits everybody who will come and behave decently.

Hill's Corner

From time to time it is our purpose to remind everybody who cares to read the advertisements that appear in the Register that we are still "doin' business" at the same old stand, and perhaps some newcomer may thereby learn that we have the goods he will need, and if we can only induce him to come and get our prices of HARDWARE and stoves—Hoes, Forks, Rakes and Shovels; Barbed Wire, Wire Fencing and Wire Cloth; Bath Tubs, Sinks, Bowls and Toilets; Rubber Hose Rubber Belting, Washing Machines and Wringers and the thousand other things we have in stock, then he will know what he ought to pay the other fellow if he should choose to buy of him instead of us.

If we shall have set the tenderfoot on the right track so that he will not be too badly "taken in" we shall have accomplished one part of our mission in life and then if, perchance, he should conclude to return and buy of us the things he needs we shall have completed the job that we came here to do, which job we have been expecting to finish right here—make a living—and we are doin' it one day at a time. LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Trade was in good volume on the street yesterday and along all lines. The feature of the market was the decline of 2 cents in fresh eggs. Canned selects were fixed at 43 cents and case counts at 39 cents a dozen. This makes a drop of 5 cents in two days. The decline, it is asserted, is due to the increased receipts during the past week, over 200 more cases of fresh eggs finding their way into the local market. The market was reported firm at the revised quotations. Other grades were unchanged and moved out well at prevailing quotations. Arrivals were 109 cases.

There was no change in the butter situation. The market was firm to steady under light receipts. The revised figure of 32½ cents a pound on creamery extra was well received and there was a good movement of that figure. Inferior stock made up the bulk of the receipts, which were 12-639 pounds.

The potato market showed no new features. There was a fair passing trade, and prevailing quotations were upheld throughout the day. Arrivals were 2318 sacks. Highlands were in best call from $1.60 to $1.85 per hundredweight.

Sweet potato arrivals were 263 sacks. The market continued firm at $2.25 a hundredweight.

Onion receipts were liberal—2413 sacks were reported in. No change was noted in this market. The bulk of the arrivals went into storage due to greenness. No change in prices is looked for. There is plenty of the stock in storage to meet the demand. Dealers upheld quoted prices throughout the day.

A good trade was reported in fruits. Apples showed the best movement and all varieties were well received at firm figures. Only fifty boxes were reported in, but the market is well supplied for the winter trade. Spitzenburgs were best in call at $1.50 for the four-tier size.

Receipts of winter casabas were liberal, but there was only a fair call for the stock, which was sold up to $1.75 a crate.

Only fancy table grapes were in demand and dealers cleaned up early on this grade. Muscats sold from $1.00 to $1.25 a lug box.

The citrus fruit market was inclined to be dull. Receipts of new navel oranges were light. There was an indifferent demand for the stock on hand. As a consequence a decline of fifty cents a box was noted. Other citrus fruits were only in light demand but prices were upheld.

Green vegetables continued to come in in good shape and there was a good movement on everything.

Cauliflowers were in good call. Good sound stock moved well from $1.25 to $1.50 a crate.

Tomatoes were in heavy receipt but the quality was such that dealers were able to uphold prices. The top prices for the best was 85 cents a lug box.

Huntington Beach Man Will Have His Case Heard in Santa Ana

E. M. Hansbrough, who is being sued by Attorney W. E. Ferguson of Santa Ana for $50 attorney's fees, has caused his case to be transferred from the Huntington Beach Justice's court to the Santa Ana court. This was done on an affidavit of Hansbrough to the effect that he is certain that Justice Shirley of the beach city is prejudiced against him, that whenever he had appeared before Justice Shirley he had lost.

Hansbrough was the central figure in a fight at Huntington Beach in which he was fined for operating as a real estate agent without a license. Ferguson defended him.

Hobbes Galore
Officer Ryan, who patrols the railroad district, says that there are scores of hobbes on the road. In one night he counted fifty. He arrested three boys for sleeping in a shavings bin at the lumber yard. Two of them, Ray Simonds and Harry Wilson, were taken to the juvenile court. They told straight stories and were not only told to go but were given tickets to San Pedro, where they said they could get work. The third, Arthur Linch, is to stay here five days in jail.

Found Him Guilty
Alejandro Chavez, a Mexican with long, wavy locks, was today found guilty of disturbing the peace. He had planned to run away with Mrs. Francisco Marquez, whose husband is in jail serving six months for stealing walnuts, and when the woman's children protested Chavez threatened to kill them. A revolver was found in Chavez's bed. Today Chavez's brother asked for the weapon, saying it was his. Constable Squires told him he had no business with a revolver, and that the court would keep it. Chavez was found guilty of the charge and will be sentenced on Monday. The woman promised to care for her children.
